OVERVIEW

Sanctuary awaits. This is the home you can't wait to come home to. Style, sophistication, quality, character... the feeling is much more spiritual than one could expect. Maybe it's the privacy, being set back from the street with the winding path to the front door, building intrigue as one enters the home. It's definitely rooted in the expansive, south-facing, grassy backyard with dining and lounging patio for dozens of friends to celebrate the milestones ahead with you. And then there's the most stunning open-concept kitchen remodeled in 2019 with navy soft-close custom cabinetry, breakfast bar for four, dining banquette, quartz countertops finished with Miele and Wolf appliances. Both full bathrooms were also remodeled in 2019 and are more gorgeous than you could imagine designing yourself. The lighting fixtures throughout are most memorable. You will admire the thoughtful ...
