

OVERVIEW

A mid century gem nestled in the hills of Los Feliz in a tranquil setting that is both away from it all but minutes from everything. The formal entry leads to an enormous step down living room with spectacular views, a chic stone fireplace and two story vaulted ceilings featuring distinctive exposed beams and wood that accent most rooms. An updated kitchen has an eat in nook and a breakfast bar that opens to the huge formal dining room also looking out to views. The primary suite has sliding glass doors exiting to a view deck and an updated bath with soaking tub and separate stall shower. The family room easily doubles as an at home office and has custom built-ins, a wet bar and a smooth trowel cement fireplace and opens to the wonderful back yard with an expansive patio, flat grassy area and mature trees. Mid century swagger with plenty of room and views, prime Los Feliz location ...
