OVERVIEW

As you cruise along the easy curves of Via Coronel, climbing higher along the Palos Verdes hillside, the vivid contrast of lush green against blue sea comes clearer into view. At one of the street's highest points a gated entrance leads onto a tidy circular driveway, neatly framed with old-growth trees and shapely green hedges. Welcome to 1724 Via Coronel, a Panoramic Ocean View European-styled estate that's been thoughtfully refreshed to support an elegant mode of coastal living. At approximately 11,000-plus square feet, this masterpiece spans 6 bedrooms, 7 bathrooms and is positioned on a high-altitude lot that's been as lavishly considered as its grand, sun-splashed interior. A tennis court and a resort-style pool deck with a bubbling spa and outdoor kitchen are among the highlights; so too is the ocean view fountain system inspired by the elaborate fountains at Bellagio. ...
